

North American Studies

INTERDISCIPLINARY LECTURE SERIES

FALL TERM

North American Studies is an interdisciplinary program that aims to study "North America" as a distinct historical, cultural, political and economic entity, and, within North America, borders as cultural and policy spaces.

The Cuban Missile Crisis a Half Century Later: The Untold Story

MONDAY OCTOBER 29th, 3:30 p.m.
PAUL MARTIN CENTRE

DR. WALTER DORN

Department of Defence Studies
Canadian Forces College and Royal Military College of Canada

Dr. Dorn is Chair of the Department of Security and International Affairs at CFC and Chair of Canadian Pugwash. His research interests cover international and human security, especially peacekeeping and the United Nations. He is very widely published, and his latest book is entitled, Keeping Watch: Monitoring, Technology, and Innovation in UN Peace Operations.

Everyone welcome. Refreshments will be available.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Dr. Kevin Spooner, North American Studies Program
Tel: (519) 884-0710, ext. 2165 / email: kspooner@wlu.ca

This event is co-sponsored by:
the Academic Council on the United Nations System and the Laurier Centre for Military Strategic and Disarmament Studies.

Canadian Excellence
LAURIER
Faculty of Arts

This lecture series is coordinated and sponsored by the North American Studies Program.